Testifies

Wearing a cotton dress, deemed "more appropriate for the courtroom" than her previous slacks attire, blonde Betty Hansen appeared in Los Angeles court to testify about her relations with actor Errol Flynn.

BLY NEEDS A FRIEND CHAPTER XXI

BLYTHER accepted the expensive purse almost automatically, staring helplessly at the other girl. Then all at once her pent-up emotions gave way.

"Bly darling! . . . Bly!" Nancy cooed.

"Gee, kid," Norman said that ever so gently, touched by her tears.

She fled from Pop's office. She couldn't stay near them. Her tears were not "that" kind; not tears of gratitude and friendship; not heart tears. Well, yes, they were from the heart, surely, Blythe realized, but they were tears of frustration and anxiety and pain.

Sheer physical pain seemed to grip her now, knowing what she knew, having to face Nancy's grand cordiality this way just when she had steeled herself to expose Nancy once and for all.

To make matters worse, baby Scooter tagged along after her, unseen by his mother or Norman. He was distressed because "By" was crying. Standing near her there in the empty gymnasium to which she fled, he too was beginning to sob when she discovered him. She stooped and held the little fellow close.

Scooter would be sent out to her own home in a little while; Mom Miller had asked to keep him and sew for him and "enjoy him all afternoon." Presently Bly sent him away, then retreated farther.

She didn't dare go back to Pop's office. For one thing, that place would soon resume being a happy, busy madhouse. Countless last-minute details concerning tomorrow's game had to be seen to.

Pop would come in with this committee and that, go here and there, answer phone calls, talk with everybody, dictate rush letters to Nancy, inspect minor injuries on players, rehash new plays in hush-hush tones with his less experienced men. Already he apparently had forgotten all about the threat to his own safety, so busy was he.

Blythe slipped unseen into the little sports library that occupied an alcove down the hall from Pop. In it he kept a few hundred books and magazines devoted to athletics, also his big case of loving cups and other trophies collected over the years.

It was a good place to hide today. Nobody would come here, and she could peer out a barred window at the door leading to Nancy Hale's apartment upstairs.

Tell of "Relations" With Flynn

Night club dancer Peggy Satterlee, wearing "youthful" pig-tails and jumper, prepares to tell Los Angeles court of alleged attacks by actor Errol Flynn, while Film actor Errol Flynn, right, nervously fingers his tie as he is shown entering the court of the preliminary hearing on charges of statutory rape of the two 17-year-old girls.

in beautiful Nancy Hale all that he ever wanted in any girl. She had come into his life in a dramatic accident. All the finer emotions had been called into play.

Quick danger. Romantic rescue. Sympathy. Even patriotism, because Nancy was a war casualty, in a way. She, Blythe, had been nothing but a steady somebody always at hand; a colorless, unspectacular part of life's routine. So, what was her cue now?

SHE had a moment of agony envisioning things that probably would happen upstairs this evening.

She saw Nancy Hale a traitor. Saw her luring Norman and Duane up to a quiet little dinner party in order to drug them, then dosing them with too much of the drug so that Duane died! (Her feverish mind didn't go on to envision Norman's death.)

"This is crazy!" she declared suddenly, standing up. "And I don't intend to be that kind of fool. I'll—if I only had somebody to talk to!"

She heard a friendly laugh outside and recognized it as coming from Elmer Summers, Journal sports editor. Next impulse was to go to him with her troubles, but something warned her against that.

She thought of Pop, and knew he was not to be considered now. Mom wasn't the type to help her at all, good old Mom. She thought of Norman Dana. For quite a while she considered him. Norman was deeper than most people realized. Conceit was just an outward crust, Blythe knew. He really was loyal, even though cocky in speech and action.

But in the end she rejected him, too, remembering that he was impulsive and would probably do something terrible because he himself was involved in Nancy's plotting. Presently she had narrowed the possibility down to one person.

Hope Man Held in Murder at Texarkana

Murder charges were filed at Texarkana yesterday against Tracy Ford, 28, magazine salesman of Dierks, Ark., and Vestal Maxwell, 30, Hope sign-painter, in the robbery-slaying of Wiley Blunt Stone, 46-year-old war plant worker who was thrown out of a Texarkana hotel window early Monday morning.

The murder complaints were signed by Deputy Prosecuting At-

Fighting Men in New Guinea Congratulated

By MURLIN SPENCER

Somewhere in New Guinea, Nov. 2 (Delayed)—(AP)—The southwest Pacific land and sea commands sent congratulations today to all ranks of the Allied army in New Guinea "on their magnificent efforts leading to the capture of Kokoda" yesterday as tough fighting troops pushed on after the retreating Japanese on the road to Buna.

Although the Allied entry into Kokoda was unopposed—the terrain there offers comparatively small defensive possibilities—the Allies were pushing ahead in the same systematic manner which brought them over the Owen Stanley mountains.

Along the road to Buna, jungles and rivers combine to provide formidable natural obstacles to the Allies and more easily defended positions for the Japanese.

The view was taken here that the Japanese have no intention of giving up New Guinea and they are expected to fight on the north coast with everything available to them.

Kokoda, which has loomed large in the news since the Japanese captured it Aug. 3, is in reality a small hamlet consisting of a few simple government buildings and native huts. Even these few structures are gone now or damaged beyond use as a result of almost daily bombing and strafing sweeps by low-flying Allied planes.

Reports from the front tonight made no mention of the Japanese abandoning supplies, but it was asserted the enemy offered no resistance to the entry of the Allied into Kokoda.

Japs Try to Buy Tire; Answer Is 'No'

hold Everything

Washington, Nov. 3 — (AP) — A round robin urging President Roosevelt to appoint democratic Leader Alben W. Barkley of Kentucky to the Supreme Court was in circulation today with the prospect that it soon would be signed by a bi-partisan majority.

Senator McKellar (D-Tenn.) who addressed the letter to the president, told reporters he was convinced no more suitable man than Barkley could be found to fill the vacancy created by the recent resignation of Associate Justice James F. Byrnes to become economic stabilization director.

"Senator Barkley is eminently qualified for the place through his long public service," McKellar declared. "I would like to see the president appoint him."

Few politically-minded legislators gave Barkley much more than an outside chance for the appointment. A move vacating the Senate majority leadership would be almost certain to be followed by a hot contest which might find the administration hard pressed to

Ask Dismantling of Texarkana Railway

Washington, Nov. 3 — (AP) — The Texas and Pacific railway company asked the Interstate Commerce Commission today for authority to dismantle its 72-mile Texarkana-Shreveport and Natchez branch line between Texarkana, Texas and Shreveport, La.

The company said that there would be a net salvage value of $289,364. It said that the abandonment would release critical material for use in operating and maintaining its other lines and also make available many tons of rail, scrap steel and other material for war uses.

Bob Steuber Has Been Stopped Only Twice

Kansas City, Nov. 4 — (AP) — It may be more than a coincidence that Wisconsin and Great Lakes, the only teams to stop Missouri's Bob Steuber this year, were also the only teams to stop the Tigers. An drafter easily, too.

If stopping Steuber is so important — and the evidence certainly suggests that it is — Nebraska may not see such a problem when it plays Missouri in Lincoln Saturday. For Steuber, who was practically dismantled and sent home in action following Great Lakes' victory in St. Louis last week, may not be able to play against the Huskers, and if he does operate, he probably will be less efficient than usual.

Meanwhile Coach Don Furrut moved Bill Eklund to the fullback spot where Don Reece and Fred Bouldin ordinarily share time, both are now on the list of cripples. Reece probably won't play again this year, but Bouldin may be back at work in time for the Huskers.

Even though Steuber never took off on any touchdown flight, he didn't fizzle completely against Great Lakes. He carried the ball 14 times for 54 yards, an average of 3.9 yards a carry. His average for the season now stands at 8.88 yards a try, built up by 705 yards on 82 gallops.

The Oklahoma line always is tough, and this year is no exception. The Sooners set a new record for Oklahoma teams when they threw Iowa State backs for 17 losses totaling 102 yards. Royal Lobry had the roughest time. He was ganged ten times and lost 64 yards.

The best play of unanymy kb The best previous mark by an Oklahoma team was 30 yards. It was set in 1937 against Nebraska and tied in 1940 against Texas.

All this must make unhappy reading at Kansas State where preparations are being made for Saturday's game at Norman. The unhappy Wildcats have lost six games in a row, and apparently are ready to chalk up the unlucky seventh.

The Big Six will be lucky to break even in its two conference games this week end. Iowa State is headed for nothing but trouble in its game with Villanova, and Kansas will be no better than an even bet against Washington University of St. Louis.

And speaking of Kansas, Sports Editor Fred Ware of the Omaha World-Herald hurries to point out that while Ray Evans certainly is the Jayhawks' principal character, he isn't quite the whole show. Ends Paul Hardman and Otto Schellenbacher, tackle; Don Johnson and Warren Hodger and center Junius Penny were Kansas who taught the Nebraskan's eye.

U. S. Fortresses Turn Back Big Japanese Fleet

By MURLIN SPENCER
Somewhere in New Guinea, Nov. 2 — (Delayed) (AP) — A Japanese convoy headed for New Guinea was forced to turn back today by Flying Fortresses and B-25's which attacked in the face of intense anti-aircraft fire and enemy aerial resistance.

The repulse of the Japanese convoy off Buna was reported in a communique from Gen. MacArthur's headquarters which said 7,000 Japanese soldiers aboard the ships had been intended to reinforce the enemy's New Guinea positions.

Maj. William G. Benn, of Washington, Pa., said one large transport was damaged and another possibly damaged, by the hard-hitting bombers. Five Japanese Zero fighters which tried to intercept the attack were knocked out of the sky.

Three waves of bombers went after the convoy which was guarded by warships. The attacks started at dawn and continued until night. Each wave ran into Zeros which patted their efforts to protect the heavily-loaded ships.

"It was a good day for us because it was a daylight action and we were able to see what we were doing," said Benn.

"There were nine Zeros there and our when we left. Five were shot down."

Lieut. James G. De Wolf said: "The ships were big ones—about 1,000 to 12,000 tons each. We blew off the rudder of one ship and she stopped completely.

"The Japs were doing some firing with ack-ack guns and Zeros dived through their own ack-ack to take a crack at us. We had to dive through ack-ack, keep our eyes on the Japs and drop our bombs at the same time.

"I'm breathing a sigh of relief now because it was my thirteenth mission and I'm glad to get over the hoop."

OPA to Fix Prices on Hardwood Strips

Washington, Nov. 3 — (AP) — The Office of Price Administration announced today it planned to establish prices for hardwood and flitch (planks or strips of wood).

Industry meetings will be held in Louisville, Nov. 10, Memphis, Nov. 13, and Atlanta, Nov. 17, to lay the groundwork for establishing hardwood logging operations in Texas, Oklahoma, Louisiana, Arkansas, Mississippi, Alabama, Georgia, Florida, South Carolina, North Carolina, Tennessee, Missouri, Kentucky, Virginia, West Virginia, Ohio, Indiana and Illinois will be discussed.

And pass the ammunition holds good for these marines on Guadalcanal. While nearby gun barks as U. S. troops mop up Japs in the Matanikou river section, Catholic fighting men kneel before an outdoor altar as Father Reardon, marine chaplain, says Sunday mass.

Well-Provisioned Prisoners

While Japan talks of "severe punishment" for American prisoners and tales of torture of U. S. citizens held by Japanese are heard, U. S. Marines pass out cookies, cigarets and soap to well-pleased Japanese prisoners on Guadalcanal. Note prisoners' shoes. (Passed by Navy censor.)

Tonsorial Tommy Gun

The Tommy gun across Marine Pvt. Sam Scianguld's lap is not for use on his barbering buddy, Pvt. Joseph Aimo, but is kept handy in case marauding Japs should show up. They have a way of doing that on Guadalcanal. (Passed by Navy censor.)

Large Membership

Stockholm — (AP) — More than a million members are enrolled in the Swedish Federation of Labor. The 8,000 trade unions in Sweden now have as members 23 per cent of the nation's population between the ages of 15 and 65 years, this percentage being the world's highest, it is believed. Practically all of the wage-earners in industry and transportation have been absorbed into unions, and if the farm laborers and forest workers become affiliated, a maximum membership of 1,200,000 is forecast.

New York, Nov. 4 — (AP) — From somewhere in the Pacific war zone Sgt. (T) Max E. R. Keiffer fires a V-mail broadside in this direction upholding the "small college" brand of basketball — particularly that played in the Kansas City National Intercollegiate tournament over the kind supported by the "big" schools. The range is too long to carry on a good argument, except to point out that the squad just picked for that All-Stars vs. Oshkosh game in Chicago includes five big ten players, three from other "major" conferences and the rest from colleges that definitely are "big time" basketball schools — Notre Dame, Toledo, Seton Hall, Long Island, etc. But as a clincher, Missouri Max writes: "The second and third weeks of the season march following the end of the war, you are invited to be my house and tournament guest for the two National classics. Come out to see and decide for yourself." That speaks volumes for the confidence of a soldier and basketball fan and we hope we can accept.

Gordon Is Most Valuable Player in American

By JUDSON BAILEY
New York, Nov. 4 — (AP) — Joe Gordon, the great second baseman of the New York Yankees, has been named the most valuable player of the American League for 1942, preserving the tradition that this coveted annual award usually goes to a member of the pennant-winning club.

Since the Baseball Writers' Association of America took over in 1931 the task of selecting the most valuable player, there have been few breaks in the tradition and none at all in the last four years. Gordon's performance this year was the best in his five seasons with the Yankees, and he unquestionably was a powerful factor in the Yankees winning their sixth pennant in seven years.

However, the difference between his value to the Yankees and the value of lanky Ted Williams to the second place Boston Red Sox was open to controversy which in turn was reflected in the balloting of the committee of 24 writers.

Gordon was given 12 first place votes and received a total of 270 points, while Williams, winner of the "triple crown" for leading the league in batting, home runs and runs batted in, finished with nine first place votes and 249 points. The Boston slugger might have done better except for some controversy over one of his own teammates, Johnny Pesky, the rookie place votes and 143 points. The other first place ballot also was cast for a rookie shortstop, Vernon (Junior) Stephens, of the St. Louis Browns, who rated fourth, three points behind Pesky.

It was the second straight year in which Williams has been nosed out of the most valuable award. He ran a close second in 1941 to Joe DiMaggio of the Yankees and although his batting average sloughed off from .406 to .353 this

BLACKOUTS — YES

LAUGHOUTS — NO!

These are the faces that launch America's ships, build her bombers, back her fighting men. It is important that whatever happens they should be kept smiling.

This newspaper and 1400 Associated Press newspapers everywhere are keeping 'em smiling—keeping up morale and might—with their daily fare of Wide World Features, comics, cartoons, columns, pictures, lively entertainment for lively people in every walk of life.

So it's blackouts—yes. Laughouts—never!

Sure, it Makes You Mad!

DO YOU REALIZE that thousands of our good American soldiers are behind barbed wire—with Jap sentries marching up and down outside?

Do you know that American women and children, too, are in Jap concentration camps?

How long do you want them there—and what are you willing to do to get them out?

You can't do it by flag-waving, by slogans, and by cheers.

It takes planes—tanks—guns—bombs—shells—ships. And these don't grow on trees.

You—and you—and you—must buy these things. Not the Jap way, nor the Nazi way, nor the Fascist way. The American way—freely and gladly. In War Bonds!

The easy way—just by saving a dime from every dollar every payday. TEN PERCENT of your pay. The management of your company will save it for you, and every time it adds up to $18.75, they'll buy a WAR BOND for you.

You'll get interest on that money. It will increase every year, until for every $18.75 you invest, you'll get $25 in ten years.

And your money will buy the stuff to beat the Japs—to attack them—to bomb them, to make them wish to their heathen idols they'd never picked a scrap with Uncle Sam!

And the sooner you do your part, by backing up our boys, the sooner they will blast the Japs right out of their sandals.

Down will come that barbed wire, and out will come your fellow Americans. Home again—to a free, decent, clean country—the country we all love.

And you'll be sitting pretty, too. You'll have the clear conscience of having done your part, and you'll have built up financial protection for you and your family.

So let's get going. Do your part, Ten percent—a dime from every dollar every payday.

Invest your share in VICTORY!

5 Reasons Why

① By investing in War Bonds you help provide the planes, the tanks, the guns and the ships we must have to survive and conquer.

② You prove that you are a patriotic American.

③ You aid the morale of our fighting men, by showing them that the entire Nation is behind them.

④ You prove to our enemies that we are a United People.

⑤ You protect your own financial future, as every $18.75 you invest in a War Bond brings you back $25 in 10 years. You make the world's safest investment, by buying a share in the world's most powerful country.
